

NOMÉS TU. QUE NINGÚ ET DIGUI DE
QUI T'HAS D'ENAMORAR
(Only You. Let no one tell you who you should fall for),
Jordi Sierra i Fabra

Monica is 17 years-old and is just about to finish her school studies. She has the summer in front of her and she is not sure what to do with the rest of her life. Monica has three hobbies: music, books and burning the photos that she takes of the lovers in the park outside her house.

Roger is 38 and works as the manager of a rock band. He's from a good family and loves the nightlife that is part of his job. Due to the crisis in the music industry, Roger is not enjoying his most successful professional moment, but he tries not to think about it too much.

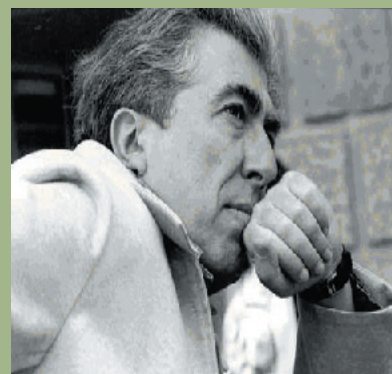

One day, an unusual event brings them together: Monica writes a sharp criticism of the fashionable band that Roger represents on her blog. They meet, and the inevitable happens: they fall madly in love. But there is one thing that stands in their way: their age. The 21 years that separate them is, for many, an unsolvable obstacle.

Vibrant, seductive and sensitive, Només tu is a novel that takes readers back to the magical sensations aroused by their first love: a captivating book that makes you dream from the first page.

Jordi Sierra i Fabra was born in Barcelona in 1947. A prolific writer, rock historian and tireless traveller, he lives with the same intensity as the protagonists of his novels. He has been awarded various literary prizes, including the Villa de Bilbao (1975), the Ateneo de Sevilla (1979), the Gran Angular (1980, 1982 and 1990), the Vaixell de Vapor (1990), the CCEI prize (1992), the Columna Jove (1993), the Edebé (1993), the Joaquim Ruyra (1996) and the Protagonista Jove for Kafka i la nina que se'n va anar de viatge (2008).

Readers and critics consider his work to be a clear reflection of the age we live in.
